

END USER LICENSE TERMS FEDGOV LICENSE

Version A2-21-17

These FedGov License terms (the “License Terms”) apply to your use of a Product if you have licensed that Product subject to a FedGov Discount from DigitalGlobe, Inc. (“DigitalGlobe”) directly or from a Certified Reseller of DigitalGlobe. These License Terms are entered into by DigitalGlobe, whose principal place of business is 1300 W. 120th Avenue, Westminster, Colorado 80234 USA, and Customer. These License Terms are in addition to and supplement the Internal Use License or Group License that applies to the Product.

By signing or otherwise indicating acceptance of a Customer Agreement or downloading, accessing or using any Product licensed under a FedGov Discount, you are accepting and agreeing to be bound by these License Terms. If you are entering into these License Terms on behalf of a company, other legal entity or government agency, you represent that you have the authority to bind that entity to the terms and conditions of these License Terms. Capitalized terms used in these License Terms are defined in Section 4 below.

1. GRANT OF LICENSE. In addition to those use rights set forth in the Internal Use License or Group License, as applicable, DigitalGlobe grants to Customer the following rights.
 - (a) FedGov End User. If Customer is a FedGov End User, during the Term, DigitalGlobe grants to Customer the FedGov Use Rights; provided, however, that if the FedGov End User wants to provide the Product to other permitted governmental agencies, it must purchase a Group License covering that number of governmental agencies to which it will provide the Product.
 - (b) Prime Contractor. If Customer is a Prime Contractor, during the Term, DigitalGlobe grants to Customer a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable license to (i) sublicense the Products to one FedGov End User; or (ii) create a value added Derivative of the Product and sublicense the Derivative to one FedGov End User. The license rights set forth in Section 1 of the Internal Use License or Group License will apply to the FedGov End User and not the Prime Contractor; the Prime Contractor is responsible for entering into a sublicense agreement with the FedGov End User that includes terms and conditions that are the same as these License Terms. In addition, the FedGov End User is granted the FedGov Use Rights; provided, however, that if the FedGov End User wants to provide the Products to other permitted governmental agencies, it must purchase a Group License covering that number of governmental agencies to which it will provide the Products.
2. DEFINITION OF GROUP MEMBER. If Customer has licensed the Product pursuant to a Group License, the definition of “Group Member” is deleted and replaced as follows:

“Group Member” means (a) a single Affiliate of Customer; or (b) a single government agency that is part of the same government level as Customer, to which Customer sublicenses the Product as permitted in Section 3 above. However, with respect to a FedGov Group, a “Group Member” means a single government agency that is part of the U.S. Federal government or a foreign government agency that is part of a coalition including a FedGov End User.”
3. UNDERLYING LICENSE TERMS. Except as specifically modified by these License Terms, the Internal Use License or Group License, as applicable, and all provisions contained in it are, and will continue, in full force and effect. All of the general provisions set forth in Internal Use License or Group License, as applicable, will apply to these License Terms as if included herein. Capitalized terms used in these License Terms but not defined in these License Terms will have the meaning set forth in the underlying Internal Use License or Group License.
4. DEFINITIONS.
